Other features of the week are a further quieting down of the excitement in fron and steek, though here lack of supplies, and not lack of consumption, is assigned as the chief reason. A strike of fron ore miners in the Lake Superior district seems likely to complicate the ore supply question. Strikes involving 15,000 men have been a fgeature of the week's operations. Lumber is feeling the influence of expanding spring demand at many markets, and prices are very strong.

New York, April 7.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

The quieter tone of distributive trade is even more marked this week than last, testifying to the unfavorable effeet upon retail trade and indirectly upon jobbing distribution of the cold, backward spring and less favorable wheat crop advices. While reports as to the damage to winter wheat are most namerous from the southwest,
the injuences of the backward season,

The situation as regards prices is still a very favorable one, the list of staples advancing or remaining steady, being by far the most numerous, while bank clearing statistics, rallroad earnings and all other obtainable measures of trade progress point to an immense business, speculative and otherwise, having been done during the first quarter of the year 1899.

business, speculative and otherwise, having been done during the first quarter of the year 1899.

Throughout the west and northwest, with few exceptions, complaint is made of unseasonable cold weather affecting distribution, particularly at retail. Accompanying the reports, however, are numerous statements that the business done during the first quarter is considerably in advance of that handled a year ago. Complaints of bad weather and roads come from the south Texas trade, and agricultural operations being unfavorably affected, and New Orleans reports that spring trade is likely to be disappointing for a like reason.

Wheat (including flour) shipments for the week aggregate 3,34,800 businels, against 3,983,233 bushels last week, 3,778,725 bushels in the corresponding week of 1898, 2,056,777 bushels in 1895, 1,156,505 bushels in 1895, and 2,934,179 bushels in 1895, and 2,934,179 bushels in 1895, the experts of wheat aggregate 185,345,500 bushels in 1895.

Since July 1, this season, the experts of wheat aggregate 185,345,500 bushels, against 185,345,273 bushels last year.

Loie Fuller May Go Blind.

(New York World.) Lole Fuller's sight has long been serlously threatened by the piercing rays of the colored lights fushed on her in of the colored lights flashed on her in her expension dances. This peril of blindness has been before her for years, but she has elected to stand by her art at all costs. Various devices have been tried to protect her eyes, but none has answered. When she leaves the stage she cannot see for several minutes, and only prserves her eight by lying for hours daily in a darkened room.

She is now undergoing a treatment at the hands of a mystic healer at 6 Rus Cadet, who has worked what appears to be almost miracles among the blind, deaf, dumb, asthmatic, consumptive and generally afflicted cilentate. His treatment is given publicly. Lote said today:
